Kilminchy to Carnegie

... a bittersweet symphony of comedy, heartache and courage

Written by and
starring Dezy Walls

Despite Graham's ambition to perform on the stage of Carnegie Hall, he is perhaps a bit too comfortable playing piano nightly in a little bar in Kilminchy. It takes a dark angel to set him on his journey from Kilminchy to Carnegie, and a wise friend to direct him to his destination.

"If I were you, I wouldn't start from here at all." - Seamus
